MOTHER AGAIN CONVICTED

Mrs. Karmendi Faces Chair

Holidaysburg Jury Again Finds Her Guilty Of Child's Death

VERDICT RETURNED AFTER SHORT SESSION

HOLIDAYSBURG, Pa., Jan. 23.—Convicted for a second time for allegedly participating in the brutal "spike" slaying of her three-year-old son, Mrs. Margaret Karmendi, 24, of Altoona, today again faced death in the electric chair.

As a climax to a bitter trial to save her from electrocution a jury of ten men and two women who had listened to a re-hearing of the case for the past several days, deliberated but one hour and fifty minutes before returning a verdict of first degree guilt.

Death in the chair at Rockview was recommended.

Mrs. Karmendi had been convicted for the same slaying and sentenced to death last June but an appeal to the state supreme court brought her a new trial.

Her alleged paramour, Roy Lockard, 24, a WPA worker, is under sentence of death for the same murder. The supreme court refused his petition for a new trial.

The state charged the couple had battered tiny Matthew "Sonny" Karmendi's head with a railroad spike so he wouldn't "tattle" to his father, Matthew, Sr., about his mother's love trysts with Lockard.

Lockard and Mrs. Karmendi at first reported to police the child had been struck by the projecting handle of an automobile as they were walking along a poorly-lit roadway leading to the Pleasant Valley section of Altoona. He was in Lockard's arms at the time, they said, and the car sped away before they could see the license plate or even distinguish the make of car.

Acting on the theory of an Altoona newspaper reporter, J. Edward Wertheimer, that the accident couldn't have happened the way it had been described, police charged them with murder. Under grilling, each admitted the murder but placed the blame on the other, police said.

During the first trial, Mrs. Karmendi's husband, Matthew, Sr., retained special counsel to aid the prosecution. Both were convicted.

At the re-trial, Karmendi surprised everyone by testifying in defense of his wife. He had had "a change of heart," he said.

Judge Marion D. Patterson, of Blair county, presided at both trials.

MISSISSIPPI RISES STEADILY

expected to reach the highest stage in history some time next week.

The stage of the streams here early today was 36.3 feet, or more than two feet above flood stage.

Much of northwest Arkansas has been inundated by the St. Francis and other rivers, while in Tennessee engineers estimated some 340,000 acres have been flooded by the raging streams. More than 2,300 persons have been warned that by next week probably several million acres will be under water in this part of the Mississippi valley.

WEATHER CHANGE HALTS FLOOD AT PITTSBURGH

ern Pennsylvania watershed were falling except at Fairmont on the Monongahela and Rowlesburg on the Cheat river where slight rises were reported because of the continued rain.

W. S. Brotzman, U. S. weather forecaster, said the snow on the ground now will not run off before Sunday and will cause no serious danger then.

Refugees were receiving adequate care, according to municipal officials. They said there were no serious threats at present of pneumonia arising from exposure.

Many sections of highway were still closed and some train reroutings were necessary. In Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad trains were using the Baltimore & Ohio station because of water in the P. & L. E. tunnel.

Several steel plants were forced to close, temporarily throwing about 12,000 men out of work. Conditions were reported normal at the western state penitentiary although five feet of water swirled around the river wall.

Maj. Gen. E. C. Shannon, commander of the Pennsylvania national guard, dispatched here by Gov. George H. Earle to mobilize relief forces, found the situation so well in hand he returned to Harrisburg.

The rivers began falling between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning at the rate of about one-tenth of a foot an hour. At 9 o'clock the stage at the "Point" was 32.4 feet, still 7.4 feet above flood stage.

W. S. Brotzman, U. S. weather forecaster, predicted a continued and gradual fall until 6 o'clock to night when the stage will remain stationary for several hours. This will be due, he explained, to a slight rise in the Monongahela river because of heavy rainfall in the upper watershed. The Allegheny was falling from Pittsburgh to Headquarters, Brotzman said.

RED CROSS ASKS COUNTY FOR AID WITH FLOOD FUND

the source of the Shenango, and business firms and private citizens have been saved thousands of dollars. Out of sheer gratitude, they should respond to a call for assistance from other sections not so fortunate, and should raise the quota asked here in short order," Chairman Buttz of the Disaster Relief committee here stated, in commenting on Admiral Grayson's appeal.

Many Now Homeless

The telegram received from the head of the National American Red Cross, states that eight states have been hard hit by the present flood condition, with 270,000 persons dependent on the Red Cross for food, clothing, and housing.

Their misery has been added to by blizzards and extreme cold weather in some sections.

The money aside in the budget of the National Red Cross for flood emergency is practically exhausted, it is stated, and it is necessary to supplement this by a special fund.

Contributions should be brought or sent to the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross, 17½ South Mercer street.

half an hour. Water was flowing from six to 10 feet deep in the streets he said.

National Guard observers said nearly 100 residents of one street near the river were evacuated last night after they failed to heed warning of City Manager Frank E. Sheehan Thursday night to leave for higher ground.

Flood gates were still allowing water to seep in through sewers but gas and electric service was still maintained.

Shipments of milk and meat were enroute from Columbus, Rutland said. Enough food was on hand to last several days, he declared.

"We've got the people out of the flood safely, now our task is to keep them healthy, warm and well fed," Rutnam added.

He reported learning that the towns of Manchester and Rome were completely isolated and could only be reached by boat.

PRESIDENT MAY BE FORCED INTO STRIKE ACTION

face developments here, Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan, was back in the strike zone; President Homer S. Martin of the United Automobile Workers, was in Toledo, and Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins simply watched the situation. G. M. chiefs were presumably in New York after their departure from the scene of collapsed peace conferences here.

At the White House, the strike was the subject of a lengthy discussion in the cabinet meeting, but not a word leaked out as to the trend there. Meanwhile, President Roosevelt maintained silence after his issuance of a brief statement for quotation declaring that there came times when statements, conversations and headlines were not in order.

Long Sentence Given Robber

Five To Ten Years In Penitentiary For Holdup Is Prisoner's Fate Here

OTHER PRISONERS ARE SENTENCED

Three dollars and ten cents were transmittal to five to ten years in the western penitentiary today in sentence court by Judge James A. Chambers and W. Walter Braham.

The gentleman who was on the receiving end of the sentence is Joe Hayward, colored, of Erie, Pa. His offense was robbery at the point of a gun.

Some weeks ago Hayward held up Gus Martin on Moravia street and took $3.10 and a few cigarettes from him. A short time later Hayward was caught by city police and Martin identified him. He pleaded guilty but explained to the court that he had no money to bring witnesses here. Chief Ralph Criswell told the court that Hayward had a record of about ten convictions and was on parole. Unless he gets another parole he will spend the next five years in the western penitentiary. He was also fined $10 and costs.

Other sentences were handed down by the court at the session this morning.

Tony Lamancusa was fined $100 and costs and given thirty days in the county jail for driving while intoxicated.

William Grime, Neal Mack and Melon Germanovich of Bessemer were placed upon probation for five years for breaking and entering. They all pleaded.

Frank Budecovich pleaded to possession of untaxed liquor. He was fined $200 and costs and got four months in the county jail.

Leroy Rice, pleaded to incestuous adultery. Fined $1 and costs and got from 1½ years to 3 years in the western penitentiary. He was sentenced two weeks ago on a similar charge and he must serve both sentences, which gives him from three to six years total.

Edward Jones pleaded to violation of the firearms act. He was fined $50 for use of the county, the costs and placed on probation for one year.

George Bashor, pleaded to larceny. Placed upon probation for three years and assessed the costs in the case.

Katherine Smith of Youngstown, pleaded to a charge of driving while intoxicated. Fined $100 and costs, and thirty days in the county jail. Sentence to be reduced to five days if the fine and costs are paid.

Harry Aven, pleaded to larceny. Placed upon probation for five years and assessed the costs in the case.

Donald Fleeger, pleaded to a charge of forgery. Sentenced to Huntingdon industrial school.

Frances Neil, William A. Clark, pleaded to a charge of larceny. Paroled for one year upon payment of $25 and costs each.

OHIO RIVER AT RECORD HEIGHT AT CINCINNATI

eleven afflicted states reached to an estimated 200,000 and other thousands were jobless or in need.

With intense cold hampering rescues, the number of homeless in the St. Louis area increased to 40,000 today, according to the American Red Cross, and other 40,000 had been driven from Indiana homes. Ohio has more than 60,000 refugees.

Mississippi Rising

Meanwhile, with the swollen Ohio river pouring into the already rising Mississippi and other flooded streams rapidly bulging the "father of waters," residents of the lower Mississippi valley waited for the worst of the flood situation next week.

At least twenty-five persons have died and an estimated seventy-five are missing in the valleys of the Ohio, Cumberland, St. Francis, White, Arkansas and other rivers which feed the Mississippi—backbone of the great midwestern watershed.

The death toll for Arkansas and Tennessee increased today when it was learned that one man had fallen to death in Arkansas and four were known to have drowned in Tennessee.

In Indiana, it was reported that Fred Johnson, his wife and six children had drowned in the swirling Ohio. Property estimates for that state was immense, some estimates going as high as $400,000.

May Be $100,000,000 Loss

For the nation as a whole, it was thought the property loss would surpass $100,000,000. Houses have been washed away, stocks of goods destroyed, utilities damaged, and highway and railroad beds washed out.

The seriousness of the flood situation for industry was indicated by an estimate that 30,000 are out of work in West Virginia and Eastern Ohio because of flood-stopped factories.

At Cincinnati the Ohio reached a stage of 72.35 feet early today, a new all-time high, and was expected to reach a stage of 72.8 feet before receding.

City officials estimated there are 40,000 homeless in the metropolitan area, while at Portsmouth, above Cincinnati the Ohio and Scioto rivers coursed through the business district and 13,000 refugees sought haven on high ground.

Sub-Freezing Temperatures

Sub-freezing temperatures added to the misery of the flood victims, and handicapped the rescue workers through Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky and Arkansas.

National Guardsmen, Naval Militia, Coast Guardsmen, the Red Cross, and federal, state and local relief agencies mobilized forces from far and wide, but admittedly were unable to care for the thousands of victims of the onrushing yellow tide.

The fate of many villages in the path of the flood was unknown. Houses tumbling along the turbulent stream, the debris choking the channel, indicated hundreds of homes have been swept away, and fear was felt for the safety of their occupants.

Seven persons who failed to heed the warning to abandon the city of Lawrenceburg, Ind., inundated when a levee broke yesterday, were reported drowned. Fifty persons were reported missing in the lowlands home near Henderson, Ky., were believed drowned when their house was swept downstream.

Crews of naval reservists in two boats set out from Eldorado, Ill., early today in an attempt to reach Shawneetown, isolated for 24 hours. It was reported 700 people are marooned there.

Deaths of the Day

Harry M. Culbertson

Harry M. Culbertson, aged 63 years, of 604 North Liberty street, well known musician and Pennsylvania railroad employee, died in the Jameson Memorial hospital at 3:45 p. m. Friday after an illness of some time.

Mr. Culbertson had many friends in the community and news of his passing is received with sorrow. He was a member of the Mahoning Presbyterian church, had been with the Pennsylvania railroad for 19 years and was a member of the company's M. B. A. and the Brotherhood of Shop Craftsmen.

A musician of ability, Mr. Culbertson was leader of both the Pennsylvania railroad and Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation bands.

Surviving are his wife, Anna D. Johnston Culbertson; three sons, Earl, Howard and Harry, all of this city; three grandchildren, two brothers, A. A. Culbertson, of Youngstown, O., and Fred Culbertson, of Kinzua, Pa., and his father, Alexander Culbertson, Kinzua.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home with Rev. D. C. Schenely, of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, in charge. Interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

Francis Gallagher Funeral

Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, funeral services for the late Francis J. Gallagher, of 814 Butler avenue, were conducted at the residence by Rev. T. B. Shearer, pastor of the Central Christian church.

"Carry Me Over the Tide" and "The Old Rugged Cross" were sung during the services by Mrs. Isaac Davis, Rev. Milton E. Shearer and Rev. Mrs. T. B. Shearer.

Funeral services were Warren Broadbent, Paul Keelan, Wallace McKisick, Merle Francis, Charles E. Allen and John Loy. Interment was made in Oak Park cemetery.

Charles J. Muckico

Charles J. Muckico, five-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muckico, died at the family home, 702 Arlington avenue, at 5:30 a. m. today, following a short illness.

The infant was born on August 17, 1936. Besides the parents, two brothers, Stephen and John, and two sisters, Helen and Elizabeth, survive.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. Nicholas church, with Rev. Joseph Mully in charge, and interment will be made in the church cemetery.

Torsello Funeral Time.

Mass will be celebrated at St. Vitus church Monday morning at 11 o'clock for the late Dan Torsello, of 516 Pearson street. Interment will be made in St. Vitus cemetery.

Mrs. Burns Funeral Time.

Mass for the late Mrs. Nina Marie Burns, wife of Paul Eugene Burns, of 114 North Ray street, will be celebrated at 9 o'clock Monday morning from St. Mary's church. The funeral party will leave the residence at 8:30.

Miss Wimer Funeral.

Funeral services for Miss Margaret E. Wimer, of Volant, Pa., were conducted in the Leesburg Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon with Dr. S. A. Kirkpatrick of New Wilmington.

A great many flowers had been sent by friends and Dean McBride, Cooper Ningo, Homer Orr and Neil Campbell served as flower bearers. Pallbearers were Grant Gilson, Roy Black, Raymond Black, Francis Barkley, Howard Armstrong and Andrew Carlson. Interment was made in Leesburg cemetery.

Mr. Bashara Funeral.

Funeral services for the late Joseph Bashara were conducted Friday morning in the St. John the Baptist Maronite church, with Rev. Elias Nasser celebrating the high requiem mass.

The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing relatives and friends who came to pay their last respects in memory of the deceased.

Interment was made in St. Vitus cemetery. Mosses, Joseph, Charles Esaw, Joe Moses, Peter Jurek, Roma and Peter George were pallbearers.

SHENANGO RIVER REACHES CREST

Immediately, but the Shenango kept slowly creeping up.

During the floods and high water last March, the Shenango reached a stage of 16 feet, only a few inches away from the flood stage, and this mark was almost reached again.

Four inches of snow fell in the local area Friday afternoon and evening, almost the equivalent of a half inch of rain, and had this continued in the form of rain, there is little question but what New Castle would have felt the effects of it in the low sections along the streams, with a possible inundation of some of the business district. The cold snap seems to have staved off this danger for the present, however.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE

Ed. O'Neill, R. D. 1, Butler road, reported to police that at 10 p. m. Friday his car and one driven by Mike Snyder, 923 Temple avenue, were in a collision at East Washington street and Ryan avenue. O'Neill said he was making a left turn into Ryan avenue when the accident occurred.

The United States marshal's office denied any knowledge of where they will be sent.

"We have not received any orders yet from the attorney general at Washington," one official said. "Until then, we can do nothing."

Capt. Hamilton Will Leave For Indo-China Soon

Local Officer In French Foreign Legion Here On Brief Furlough

Captain Edgar G. Hamilton, only American officer in the French Foreign Legion, who is spending a short furlough with his mother, Mrs. C. L. Goodman, of North Mill St., and other relatives in this city, will remain in New Castle until the latter part of next week when he leaves for New York to sail for France, February 6.

Captain Hamilton, who has been stationed in Algeria, has been ordered to Indo-China for an indefinite period of service.

During his visit in his home town he is not making any public appearances it is understood, but is enjoying his furlough quietly renewing old acquaintances and being entertained informally by his many friends.

Man Is Crushed To Death As Truck Crashes Into Tree

(International News Service)

TAMAQUA, Pa., Jan. 23.—One man was crushed to death and another seriously injured today when their coal truck skidded on an icy street here and crashed head-on into a tree.

Pinned in the truck cabin for almost an hour while several acetylene torch operators worked to extricate the two men from the mass of wreckage, the victims were tentatively identified as John Devos, East Patterson, N. J., believed to have died instantly, and Charles Samborsky, 23, of Clifton, N. J., in a serious condition in the Coal State Hospital.

Devos was mangled almost beyond recognition and was tentatively identified by a summons for a traffic violation found in his pocket.

Seven Drowned At Lawrenceburg

(International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 23.—At least seven persons have been drowned in the flood waters swirling through the city of Lawrenceburg, Ind., according to word received here today. Fifty persons were reported missing.

Lawrenceburg has been isolated from the outside world for 36 hours. Citizens fled to the hills, many finding refuge in two distilleries, when a levee broke, losing a wall of water on the stricken city.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to thank our relatives, friends and neighbors for kindness and sympathy extended during our recent bereavement, also for the gorgeous floral tributes and cars donated.

Just before time for luncheon, the girls showered the guest of honor with a collection of beautiful gifts. In serving a tasty menu at the small tables, the hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Sol Davies.

SNOW ADDS ZEST TO MEN'S HIKE SUNDAY

Men's Garden club members are getting out their hiking boots and mufflers today preparatory to the afternoon trip Sunday which is scheduled to start from the East Brook high school at 2 o'clock.

Rather than detracting from the hike, the snow has added zest to the occasion, for the men foresee heartier appetites for the sausage and buckwheat cakes supper which will be served at the conclusion of the hike, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black at East Brook.

HONOR ENGINEER FRIDAY EVENING

Friday evening in the Elks club, North Mill street, employees of the Manufacturers Light & Heat company honored one of their associates, K. D. Betz of Adams street, heating engineer, who has been transferred to Pittsburgh.

Following dinner, the group enjoyed a social hour. Mr. Betz assumes his new duties on February 1.

Birthday Surprise

A birthday surprise was held recently by Mrs. Joe Williams, honoring her daughter, Mrs. Ida Bigley. The affair took place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Confer, Chestnut street.

Bingo featured the hours with prizes going to Edna, Gladys, Virginia and Charlotte Bigley, Mrs. Myrtle Richards, Mrs. Richard Bigley and Mrs. Levine Confer.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Emma Trott, Peg Bigley and Mrs. Levine Confer.

The honored guest received a number of handsome gifts in remembrance of the occasion.

SAWALLA CLUB HAS INFORMAL GATHERING

Mrs. Roy Jones, Northview avenue, opened her home to associates of the Sawalla club Friday evening, when she entertained with cards. Those receiving awards included Mrs. Samuel Boughter, Mrs. Richard Boughter and Miss Jones. The latter and Mrs. Harry shared as special guests.

Following the serving of refreshments by the hostess, the group planned their next meeting with Mrs. James Massie, Ray street, on Friday, February 5.

DINNER-INSTALLATION FOR THETA RHO GIRLS

Over 60 young girls comprising the Theta Rho group and their sponsors, Rachel Rebekahs sat down to a delectable dinner Friday evening at 6:30 in I. O. O. F. hall on East Washington street, the occasion marking the first anniversary of Theta Rho Girls.

Colors of the order, peach and blue, combined effectively with roses in decorating the long tables, and the committee serving was composed of Rachel Rebekahs, Mrs. Nellie Tribby, Mrs. Kate Stanley, Mrs. Sadie Parks, Mrs. Lula Schetrom, Mrs. Sara McCormick, Mrs. Lillian Sumner.

After dinner, the group gathered upstairs in the lodge room for the installation ceremonies in charge of Mrs. Marie Ruff, who has led the girls so faithfully during the past year since their organization.

Assisting Mrs. Ruff in the beautiful and impressive service, was an installation staff composed of Rachel Rebekahs, Mrs. Lucy Pettitt, Mrs. Charlotte Conley, Mrs. Anna Young, Mrs. Alice Thompson, Mrs. Sara McCormick, Mrs. Nellie Houk, Miss Minnie Howard, Mrs. Elizabeth Ward, Mrs. Minerva Carr, Mrs. Sara Smith.

As the ceremonies progressed, lovely vocal solos were sung by two young girls, Pauline Rashid and Helen Park.

Officers installed were: President, Stella Cramer; vice president, Thelma Thompson; recording secretary, Roberta Cooper; financial secretary, Erma Hoover; treasurer, Sara Sumner; chaplain, Edna Hanna; warden, Pauline Rashid; marshal, Jean Porter; conductor, Jean Badger; right supporter to president, Betty Evans; left supporter, Margaret Lutton; first herald, Sara Kagaris; second herald, Bonnie Marietta; third herald, Freda Gillespie; right supporter to vice president, Virginia Emery; left supporter, Ada Ketzell; inside guardian, Thelma Badger; guardian, Charlotte Clark; musician Helen Clark.

Witnessing the installation were many parents and friends of Theta Rho Girls, as well as a group of Theta Rho Girls from the Youngstown chapter. Fitting remarks were expressed by several of the older folks, and a gift of money was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelso to help their girls carry on their work.

Mrs. Ruff presented a past president's pin to the retiring president, Miss Jean Lutton, who responded in a beautiful manner.

Altogether, the occasion was most successful and the second installation will linger as long in the memories of those participating, as the one just a year ago when the organization was first effected.

Friendship Class

Mrs. J. Long of Boeton avenue, delightfully entertained members of the Friendship class of the People's Mission in her home, Thursday evening.

Following a short business period an interesting program was given by several of the group.

Lena Cadwell rendered a vocal solo. Mrs. Louise Winger gave a reading, and several guitar numbers were rendered by Sammy Cartwright and Jess Long.

Later a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Ella Mae Cameron and Myrtle Montgomery. The next meeting will be in February at the home of Mrs. Cameron on McCleary avenue. One special guest, Mrs. Eva Earl, was present.

K. O. F. Club

Mrs. Robert Hamilton, of Winslow avenue, entertained as guests in her home Thursday evening, members of the K. O. F. club. Tables of 500 formed the diversion with Mrs. Ralph Jones and Mrs. Wesley Campbell winning the prizes.

In serving lunch, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Lochart. The menu was enjoyed by candle light and appointments used, were in keeping with the season.

The next meeting, February 11 will take place with Mrs. Edward Minick hostess in the home of Mrs. Sam Clark, on Franklin avenue.

Friendly 500 Club

Mrs. Mary Hemphill, 721 Butler avenue, delightfully entertained members of the Friendly Five Hundred club in her home Friday evening.

True to its name, the club members spent the evening playing 500, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Mary Patterson and Mrs. Josephine Baldauf, for high scores.

Later, a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Florence Miller. The club will again meet on February 15, in the home of Mrs. Josephine Baldauf.

Siempre Amigo Club.

Regular meeting of the Siempre Amigo club was held recently in the home of Sue Maroni on Electric street. A hanky shower was tendered Mary Giammarino, in remembrance of her birthday anniversary. She also received a lovely gift.

Cards claimed attention, and refreshments were served at a suitable hour by the hostess. The next meeting, Thursday, January 28, will be held with Mafalda and Aurora Nocera on East Long avenue.

Executive Board

L. A. B. MEMBERS EVENING EVENT

An informal gathering of L. A. B. club members was held in the home of Mrs. Lucy Covett on East Washington street, Thursday evening, with Mrs. Virginia Barber being a special guest.

Bingo prizes fell to Mrs. William Marker and Mrs. Anna Williams at the close of the contest, with the serving of a delicious lunch affording a later pleasure. The hostess used a color scheme of green and white, and the menu was enjoyed by candle light. Mrs. Minnie Ellgass assisted throughout the evening.

Thursday, February 4, the club will meet with Mrs. Annabell McFadden on Oak street.

ACME CLUB EVENTS LAUNCHED FOR 1937

The first meeting of the club period for 1937 for Acme club members was held at "The Lodge", the home of Misses Jean and Ella Clarke, near Westfield, on Wednesday.

At noon a bountiful dinner was served on beautiful willow ware dishes that added much to the pleasure of the occasion. Places marked for 14, with Mrs. Haverfield of Monongahela City, a special visitor. Batchelor button flowers formed the attractive table centerpiece, and other notes completed the setting.

Mrs. Belle Kerr assisted the hostess with the menu.

A literary program featured afterwards, and later fancywork and chat filled in the time.

The club will meet with Mrs. Florence Andrews of Mt. Jackson on Wednesday, Feb. 17. On this day a special "Washington" program will be carried out.

McKINLEY DAY IS OBSERVED

Daughters of Union Veterans, Tent 20, held their regular meeting Friday evening in Clendenin hall. The business session was held under the direction of the president, Jessie Harris.

McKinley Day was observed by the group with a special memorial service at the meeting last night. Mrs. Pearl Cook gave in detail the first important achievements in his life. She also disclosed the fact that McKinley was the founder of the Daughters of Veterans organization in Ohio. He started the first tent in 1893, and it was known as the Major William McKinley Tent 1 of Massillon, Ohio.

The next regular meeting of the group will be on February 12 in the hall with the following persons in charge: Mrs. Emma McKissick, Mrs. Pearl Cook, Mrs. Georgianna Walsh, and Jessie Crooks.

HILL TOP CLUB AT MRS. JAMES CAMPBELL'S

In the home of Mrs. James Campbell on Fairfield avenue Friday evening, the Hill Top club assembled for a round of cards. High score award was captured by Mrs. Joseph Campbell and the galloping trophy by Mrs. Gerald Book.

When luncheon time arrived the guests were invited to the dining room where a daintily appointed menu throughout which blue and yellow details predominated, was served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Burry.

In two weeks the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Henderson, Delaware avenue.

Veteran's Auxiliary

Mrs. Louise Evans, president, was in charge of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary meeting in the Legion Home Thursday night at 8 o'clock during which a number of times for future events were made.

Another of the card party series will take place at the Legion Home on February 5, with Mrs. Flossie Potter as chairman, and a Washington-Lincoln tea party will take place February 18, with the patriotic instructor, Mrs. Mary Cox, and Americanization chairman, Mrs. Diana Sweet, in charge.

Out-of-town guests at this week's meeting were Mrs. M. Hare, president of the Beaver Falls Auxiliary, and secretary, Mrs. R. A. George.

Junior C. D. of A.

Junior C. D. of A. held a business meeting, Friday evening. Plans were discussed for an initiation night, to be held shortly after Easter.

The girls elected to offices were: Esther Jacob, queen; Kathleen Green and Mary Campbell, attendants; Mildred Donegan, general chairman; and Margaret Mary Maher as her assistant, spirits of the Junior C. D. of A. Jean Cunningham and Marie McCann.

Plans were also made for a tea to be held on February 22. The next regular meeting will be on February 3.

BOARD ANNOUNCES FEDERATION MEETING

Tuesday, February 16, is the date selected for the next meeting of the Federation of Women's clubs of Lawrence county. The board met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. June Bernard on Park avenue with the president, Mrs. H. R. McCulloch, in the chair.

The Education department of the Federation will have charge of the February meeting, Mrs. S. D. Pearson, program chairman, announcing that the morning session will be led by Mrs. Joseph D. Dury, state chairman of education. It will take the form of some phase of education and several local women will take part with Mrs. Dury.

In the afternoon, Dr. James Kinard, head of the department of education at Pennsylvania College for Women, at Pittsburgh, will speak on the subject, "Progress in Education." The place of meeting is yet to be determined.

The board voted a contribution to send a delegate to the conference to be held on "The Cause and Cure of War" in Chicago, January 26-29 inclusive.

Mrs. James Vogan, chairman Department of Education for the Lawrence County Federation, spoke concerning the Federation project being conducted by her group, that of supplying children in the rural schools with juvenile books and magazines. Any person in the county desiring to contribute will be made for collection.

TRAILER HOMES A PROBLEM

THE growing number of automobile trailer homes now drifting southward has added another to our already long list of highway problems. Especially is this situation becoming acute in those sections where such trailers naturally gravitate at certain seasons of the year, as in Florida during the winter.

Tourist camps, at first used by these trailer families for unlimited stays, have been compelled to put a time limit on their hospitality. These traveling homes cannot be permitted to park indefinitely at one spot. These trailer families may own their homes, but they must expect to return some sort of rent for the ground they occupy.

The problems of property taxation, of proper sanitation, and of adequate school facilities for the children of these traveling homes are others that will require answers soon. Automobile trailers are also adding seriously to road congestion in certain sections, the slow-moving, cumbersome vehicles retarding ordinary highway speed.

The prediction has been made by one noted observer of our times that one-third of the families of the nation will be living in these homes on wheels 20 years hence, if present trends continue. It is not too early, therefore, to give consideration to the problems that we shall face with this indicated transition of American home life.

RED MEN OUT OF THE RED

Sentimentalists for the "vanishing American" must find other subjects for sobbing, because John Collier, Federal Commissioner for Indian Affairs, reveals that the Indian population is now increasing faster than the white. With the good food, better medical care, improved education, housing aid and other paternalistic solicitude provided by the Great White Father, the red man has reversed things and started a comeback.

Mr. Collier credits the "psychological factor" for the Indian's new prolific trends. The Indian no longer feels inferior and unwanted, it seems. He has decided he has a future as well as a past; his chest swells as his multiplying paposes swarm about his quartered-oak door, while a market ticker near the piano lists the latest values of his oil holdings. Maybe tourists with ubiquitous cameras had something to do with it; perhaps Hollywood's influence stopped the vanishing. Most likely, the redskins had a powwow after one of those radio band dance programs and decided they should be able to add just as much to the nation's cultural, cerebral and elevating contributions.

BETTER HEALTH THE ANSWER

Sickness, not shiftlessness, is what mainly ails the southern tenant farmer or share-cropper, according to reports of government research workers.

It has been established, writes Lawrence Westbrook, that "a large proportion of these tenant farmers are afflicted with insidious, energy-sapping diseases."

Mr. Westbrook points out that the government-run clinic at Dyess, Arkansas, discovered that almost every family examined for admission to the Dyess colony was suffering from malaria, pellagra, diseased tonsils or bad teeth.

From the miraculous results obtained in the successful treatment of these settlement folk, as evidenced by their increased energy and desire for work, it has been proved that disease in many cases has been the cause of tenant farmer failures, aside from traditional lack of agrarian training.

Urging the utilization of the powerful resources of the Public Health Service, Mr. Westbrook quite reasonably puts first things first—in this case, prevention.

By clearing out the sources of malarial infection and by eliminating obvious physical disabilities, the lot of the tenant farmer in the south can be made brighter and the general health level of the country lifted appreciably.

Here, in all fairness, is where rehabilitation should start—with the human material, and general approbation will greet the government that plans and puts into operation such a program.

INFLUENZA ABROAD

Like this country, the British Isles have had the grip. Eight per cent of the London police, or 1,400, reported sick on one day this month; the usual number is a third of this. In Leicester 40 per cent of the school children had the disease, 11 per cent of the factory workers were down with it and the street car service was curtailed because of the number of its workers affected. The British Minister of Health urged people to ventilate rooms but avoid drafts, to eat nourishing food—adding that "it is often a good thing to take cod liver oil"—to gargle, and suggested that if crowded places were avoided there would be less likelihood of catching the disease.

In the Irish Free State local government bodies were urged to organize health services when it seemed necessary; the people were warned that visiting affected families was dangerous and wakes were prohibited. Precautions were also taken in Northern Ireland to prevent spread of the disease.

The British Army ordered all ranks suffering from colds and headaches to report sick immediately, and in most of the units garraging with an antiseptic before breakfast was made compulsory. In barracks it was required that all beds be spaced a yard apart and turned so that the men should sleep head-to-foot, thus lessening the danger of infection through coughing or sneezing during sleeping hours.

It is generally reported that the type of influenza now affecting the population is not as virulent as has been the case in other years, and the health report for the United Kingdom for December carried fewer cases of this disease and of pneumonia than the comparable report for last year.

PLAN PROVES SUCCESS

Inasmuch as this column appears on the woman's page in many papers, it is my proper privilege to carry on some interesting (to me) correspondence with a number of newspaper women. Some are so kind as to offer a suggestion now and then for improving this column. Some also do me the honor to write me for advice about some child or family problem. And how my chest swells up when a Big Chief-Editor himself writes, even if it is a spanking! A humble newspaper columnist, you know, always considers any response as a compliment.

A certain newspaper woman wrote me several years ago about her young, not-very-social, only daughter. I gave her the best advice that I was able to give and asked her to report progress from time to time, presenting new problems as they might arise. She has done so. Here's her latest:

"It has been a long time since I wrote, so now I have many things to report. Nice things, too!"

"Well, I finally got the girls' club going. Let me tell you, it was quite a task, for I was not sure of myself."

Doing splendidly!

"The club is doing splendidly! We started out with four members and now have nine with other prospects. It is a handcraft club, which includes embroidery, knitting, crocheting, clipping and pasting."

"One very nice part about it (and I am sure you will see good in this), is that the group decided to name the club the 'Parents Gift Club,' the main object being to make gifts for dad and mother. It was a marvelous gesture, and needed very little leading from me to induce them to decide. Their ages range from 11 to 14."

"The first thing we did was to make Halloween costumes of cat heads in black with bright yellow eyes, wild-eyed owls."

Thanksgiving we made everything indicative of the holiday was clipped from books or newspaper advertising cuts, and the way those children pasted pictures and made up verses."

"Now we have the big problem of St. Valentine's Day on our hands; but Dr. Myers, when I see how well these children do I don't worry over the outcome. The effect on Lucille has been excellent. She now has a number of friends who play with her. She really enjoys the club, for she is clever with her hands."

"Also, Dr. Myers, if you care to use any portion of this letter in your column you may do so. I now carry on a children's club column in our paper in connection with a theater, and attend each Saturday to aid the manager with the children's verses."

A CHECK LIST OF WORDS

Touch a live wire and you get a shock, perhaps only a tingle, perhaps a wallop strong enough to knock you down. . . . The experience proves that there is power in the wire, life in you. . . . A similar result happens when you hear a word. Every word, if you are alive to what happens in the world, gives you a slight lift or a let-down. It angers you, pleases you, soothes you, starts you. . . . A word that meant little to you last year, may mean much to you today. Either the world has changed, or you have changed. . . . You can get a general idea of your present state of mind from reading a list of words and checking on your emotion as you do so. For example, these words or phrases:

Edward VIII	Divorce
Mrs. Simpson	Repeat
Baldwin	Strikes
Diet	Vacations
Radio speeches	Income tax
Family life	Middle age
Husbands	Mussolini
Sunday
Winter	Profits
Monday	Doctors
Old folks	Books
Security	Love
Gossip	The future
Taxes	Ambition
"Live Alone and Like It"	New-born babies
Health	War
Spain	Wives
Fun	Fun
Speed	Corporations
Holidays	Work
Debts	"Gone With the Wind"
Football	Wages
Dancing	Gray hair
Germany	Rouge
Religion	Automobiles
Sleep	Relatives
Younger generation	Birthdays

APPLIED MATHEMATICS
I sometimes wonder what's the use of squaring the hypotenuse, or why, unless it is to tease. Things must be called isosceles. Of course, I know that mathematics are mental stunts and acrobatics. To give the brain a drill gymnastic and make gray matter more agile. Is that why Euclid has employed Trapezium and trapezoid? I wonder. Yet, it seems to me that all the plain geometry. One needs, is just this simple feat: Whatever your line, make both ends meet!

AN IRISH COURTHSHIP
An Irish sheriff got a writ to serve on a young widow and, on coming into her presence, said: "Madam, I have an attachment for you."

"My dear sir," she said, blushing, "your attachment is reciprocated."

"You don't understand me, you must proceed to court," said the sheriff.

"Well, I know 'tis leap year, but I prefer to let you do the courting yourself. Men are much better at that than women."

"Madam, this is no time for fooling. The justice is waiting."

"The justice waiting? Well, I suppose I must go, but the thing is so sudden, and besides I'd prefer a priest to do it!"

FORD'S LUCK
General Motors' strike difficulties have given Ford and Chrysler, separately, a good 1937 lead over their huge competitor. The duPont-Morgan group probably do not wish anybody any bad luck, but if their General Motors pays the piper to the union, they undoubtedly hope the union will not overlook Ford and Chrysler.

BABSON'S PROPHECY
Businessmen who superstitiously worship "business prophets" are recalling Roger W. Babson's January 1 prophecy:

"Today there is one major question in my mind—the labor problem. If this issue is not handled properly, business could receive a very rude setback. Workers are in the most strategic position today they have ever held."

VULNERABLE
"Manufacturing activity increased sharply from October to November and reached a new peak for the recovery movement," says the Alexander Hamilton Institute.

"The increase failed to depress prices. On the contrary, as the result of the influence of the current inflationary movement, the prices of manufactured goods advanced. The value of factory output consequently showed more of an increase than the volume, reaching the highest point so far attained since the recovery started."

"This peak, however, was superimposed on a level considerably above that warranted by the 1936 farm income."

"Since farm income is a fundamental measuring rod of the value of factory output, the year ended with manufacturing in a vulnerable position. The index of the value of factory output in November was 96.3 as compared with the 1936 farm income index of 78.9."

BACCALAUREATE FEATURE OF SUNDAY PROGRAM

Bishop Is To Speak Sunday, Monday Nights

Special Services At Trinity Sunday; Communion And Testimonial Monday

UNITED SERVICE SUNDAY EVENING

Tomorrow is the Sunday when Christian social service is brought to the attention of the public through the churches. Many of the great social betterment movements active today, such as hospitals, the Red Cross, the fight against all kinds of disease, against bad housing, against child labor, against all forms of injustices were started by Christians.

At 7:30 a. m. in Trinity church the holy communion will be celebrated with special petitions that people may more nearly fulfill the social obligations of the Christian religion. At 11 a. m. special psalms, scripture lessons, prayers and hymns will be used appropriate to the same topic. The Rev. Philip C. Pearson will preach on "A Modern Adventure," emphasizing that social service gives a full opportunity for the expression of the pioneering spirit venturing into new fields in modern life.

Bishop At Evening Service.

In the evening, one of the important annual events in the life of every Episcopal church takes place, the visit of the bishop of the diocese to lay his hands on the heads (with prayer after the manner of the Apostles) of those who wish to take upon themselves the promises that were made for them by their godfathers and godmothers in baptism. Through this sacrament, the Holy Spirit is given to each one receiving confirmation. Dr. John C. Ward, will preach, delivering his special message to all Episcopals in Lawrence county, and any others who may wish to hear him, for the year 1937. This is a united service, the people of St. Andrew's, New Castle, and of St. Luke's, Ellwood City, having been invited and the Rev. Samuel M. Black taking part in the service. Special music will be rendered by the choir, with Miss Isabel T. Johnson at the organ. The Eve of the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul will be observed.

The first ingathering of the bishop's pence since he took office tomorrow at the several services. They were distributed at the time of the every member canvass by the visitors. People were asked to put a penny in the can before each meal and the day grace, praying not only for God's blessing on the food of which they were about to partake, but also for the work of Christ's kingdom in the local parish and the diocese of Erie. The ushers will give a new can to each person desiring the same.

To Honor Mr. Butz.

Monday the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul will be held at the usual saints' day service will be held at the chapel altar in Trinity church, being the holy communion with the bishop of Erie, the Right Rev. John C. Ward, D. D., as the celebrant, as he is staying over to take part in the testimonial to William T. Butz. This will be held on Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Guild room and takes the form of a dinner. Bishop Ward will be the leading speaker on this happy occasion.

St. Andrew's Service

Bishop Ward will be at St. Andrew's church for the celebration of holy communion at 8 a. m. Sunday and for a meeting with the executive committee at 3 p. m.

Pageant On Sunday At Central Christian

"The Ninety And Nine" Will Be Given At Evening Service, Three-Act Musical Pageant

A pageant, "The Ninety and Nine," will be a very interesting presentation Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Christian church, corner of Long and Pennsylvania avenues.

In the cast are: Father—Dave Lewis. Mother—Mrs. Thomas B. Shearer. Small daughter—Carol Richards. Older daughter—Lillian Wink. Young son—Charles Richards. Prodigal son—David Duncan. Soloist, (back stage)—Dorothy Frey, assisted by children's choir of 50 voices.

It is to be a musical pageant of three acts. The first two will be on a porch setting, the third, a desert scene. In the morning Rev. T. B. Shearer will preach on "Disobedience." Communion will be administered.

Third U. P. To Have Communion Sunday

The Third U. P. church will have communion at both the morning and evening services Sunday. Rev. Chester T. R. Yeates, the pastor, will have for his evening subject, "Whom Having Not Seen We Love," concluding a successful series of sermons which have been delivered during the past week.

After thirty, a man prefers a woman with brains, provided she isn't smarter than he is.

Revival Will Open At Hoover Heights

Rev. Frank Wyre Will Be Guest Evangelist At Two Weeks Of Service

REV. FRANK WYRE

Rev. Frank Wyre, evangelist, will open a series of services Sunday morning in the Hoover Heights Gospel Tabernacle.

Mr. Wyre is a nationally known evangelist of wide success. For a number of years he served as pastor of one of the Alliance churches in the Eastern District but for the past twelve years has devoted his entire time to the ministry of special evangelistic campaigns. Mr. Wyre is a unique and powerful preacher and good orator, and a splendid singer, having been in charge of the choir and congregational singing in summer camp meetings and other places for many years.

The services will be conducted nightly at 7:30 with the exception of Saturday night, and will last through February 7.

The tabernacle is located on the corner of Morris and Moorhead streets, in South New Castle Boro. Rev. Arthur T. Williams, is pastor.

Sunday Schools Enter Contest

"Gold Rush" Campaign To Start On Sunday, February 7—Ends March 28

At present the Sunday schools in New Castle, that have signified their intention of participating in the Increase Campaign sponsored by the Lawrence County Sabbath School association to be called the "Gold Rush" are the First Baptist, the Third U. P., the First Christian, the Wesley M. E., the Mahoning United Presbyterian, the Highland U. P., and in all probability the First P. The Increase Campaign is open to any Sunday school in Lawrence county, and those wishing to participate may send the figure that represents their average attendance for last year. This should be mailed to the Lawrence County Sabbath School association, room 208 Lawrence Savings & Trust building, before the opening of the campaign, and then every Sunday afternoon during the campaign 913-M should be called by phone and the attendance for the day given. The standings of the Sunday schools and appropriate publicity will be given to show the progress that is being made.

The "Gold Rush" starts Sunday, February 7, and continues through including Easter Sunday, March 28. The participating Sunday schools "stake their claims" or decide what particular part of the city they will work as visitors to "prospectors." February 7 will be "Young People's Day"; February 14, "Adult Day"; February 21, Missionary Society Day; February 28, Cradle Roll and Home Department Day; March 7, "Old Folks Day"; March 14, "100 per cent Enrollment Day"; March 21, "New Members Day" and March 28, Easter, "Every One Out Day."

While the purpose of the campaign is to increase attendance, still evangelism, education, effectiveness and church attendance will be stressed.

The purpose of the campaign is not only to increase the attendance of the Sunday school or a small group of Sunday schools, but the "prospectors" when making their calls will urge that those not attending Sunday school, attend the school where they have been previously affiliated, thereby stimulating the general attendance.

The Sunday school making the best progress during the campaign will be presented with an award.

Many Forced To Evacuate Homes

Flood Stage Of 47 Feet Is Being Neared By Ohio At Wheeling, W. Va.

(International News Service)
WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 23.—Two persons were dead, and property damage mounted into the hundreds of thousands here today as the Ohio river continued toward an expected crest of 47 feet.
More than 5,000 persons evacuated their homes in Wheeling, and thousands more in surrounding towns fled to high ground. Wheeling Island, where four died in the 1936 flood, was deserted, and today's crest was expected to put water in many island second floors.
Dead were Mrs. Agnes Patos, 65, of South Wheeling, whose heart failed as the waters neared her home, and an unidentified man who plunged into the river near Bellaire.
All possible precautions were taken to prevent other loss of life. Hotels were crowded to capacity, and 500 refugees found safety in the Market Auditorium. Schools and churches established feeding centers.
A steady rainfall that turned to snow last night sent all creeks over their banks, adding to the flood damage, and more than 30,000 men were out of work in West Virginia and eastern Ohio because of flood-stopped industry.
Two dogs on the island died of rabies, and a 90-day quarantine was established, with examination for all dogs before they were permitted on the mainland.

Some Mills Are Forced Down By High Ohio Stage

River Reaches 43 Feet At Steubenville, Ohio, During Day—Rises Slowly

(International News Service)
STUEBENVILLE, O., Jan. 23.—The anticipated Ohio river crest of 43 feet was reached in this district today, but the river continued to rise slowly.
Steel plants were closed down until the flood passed, and it was estimated about 600 families in Jefferson county were homeless.
The little community of Empire, north of here suffered severely. In many homes there the water approached second stories. Food kitchens, set up by the Red Cross supplied flood sufferers. About 500 families were homeless.
At Sugar Church, near Empire, 100 women and children were given shelter last night.
State Route 7, bordering the river was blocked for about 50 miles between East Liverpool and Martins Ferry, buried beneath six feet of water in places and closed by avalanches elsewhere.
The flood threw 2,200 men out of work at Mingo by closing the Carnegie-Illinois Steel plant for several days.
Water on the mill floor forced a temporary suspension at the Wheeling Steel corporation's plant in Steubenville, rendering 5,000 workers idle.
Weirton Steel corporation's plants here and in Weirton, W. Va., continued operations.

Erie Trains Use Tracks Of P. R. R.; Branch Inundated

Shenango river flood waters which reached a depth of two feet in places covered the Erie railroad's Perona branch line in the West Middlesex section today and forced Erie officials to re-route all their New Castle-Wheatland trains over the New Castle-Erie branch of the Pennsylvania railroad.
Erie officials here said the high waters have inundated "quite an area of the low-lying tracks" in the West Middlesex section. The waters are now receding.
The Pennsylvania, in the New Castle district and north to Erie, has been experiencing little trouble during the current high-water spell. Today, local officials continue to report "no trouble."
The Pennsylvania's tracks at Warren and Niles, O., however, still were under Mahoning river flood waters today. All Pennsy traffic is being handled over tracks of the Baltimore & Ohio. It was learned that 51 inches of water cover the tracks near Warren and 36 inches in the Niles area.
Late reports said the Mahoning's crest has been reached and no further trouble is expected.
Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio operations out of Pittsburgh to New Castle were affected in no way whatever by the high Ohio river stage which reached a crest during the night. For a time, it was said officials were of the belief that the climbing Ohio might introduce trouble in that section. The memorable March flood of last year forced complete abandonment of operations on main lines through that city.

MAHONING GRANGE MEETING
Members of Mahoning Valley grange will gather in their grange hall for a regular meeting on Tuesday, January 26 at 7:30 p. m. Master R. W. Allison will preside.

Card Of Thanks
We wish to thank our friends, neighbors and relatives for kindness and sympathy extended during our recent bereavement. Also for beautiful flowers and cards donated.

CLARK GABLE FLU SUFFERER

Is Led From Studio After He Collapses Following Love Scene With Myrna Loy

(International News Service)
HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 23.—After collapsing in the midst of a love scene with actress Myrna Loy, Clark Gable, screen star, was under a doctor's care suffering from influenza today.
Although Gable insisted "I just had a cold and quit because I ran out of handkerchiefs," doctors said he was suffering a raging fever.
He was led from the studio late yesterday, where he was working on "Parnell," in which he and Miss Loy are starring.
Gable is one of more than a dozen screen celebrities to be stricken with the disease which has almost reached epidemic proportions here.
More than 200 new cases were reported in the Los Angeles area yesterday.
Other screen stars confined to their homes or to hospitals include Robert Taylor, William Powell, Joan Crawford, Robert Montgomery, Martha Raye, Dixie Dunbar, Simone Simon, Edna May Oliver, George Bancroft and George Marshall.

Youth Confesses Killing Of Boy

Got Scared And Ran Away Says Henry Oberhelman To Police Officials

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23.—A steaming platter of food set before Henry Oberhelman started the tongue of the 16 year old youth wagging and today he had told detectives calmly and coolly how he shot and killed his playmate, Steve Kotula, 10 with a .22 calibre rifle the two had stolen from another boy last December 5. "I fired a shot at him and Steve fell over," police quoted the youth as admitting. "Then I got scared and ran. I didn't know whether he was dead or not."
Oberhelman was arrested last December when the Kotula boy disappeared but later released because police were unable to find the body. When police went to arrest him Thursday night again, his father fought them off with a crowbar while he leaped from a window. The youth was captured when house-holders reported he was wandering about seeking food near Carnegie.

Government To Aid Sufferers In Flood Areas

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—All agencies of the federal government capable of giving assistance were mobilized today by President Roosevelt to aid flood victims in the south and mid-west.
His action followed the report of Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, Red Cross chairman, that at least 120,000 persons were temporarily homeless so far. He made a public appeal for $2,000,000 to help to care for the flood refugees whose homes and sole belongings were destroyed by the rushing waters.
The forces, equipment and supplies of these agencies will be expanded wherever necessary.

Seek To Prevent Americans From Fighting In Spain

(International News Service)
PLYMOUTH, Eng., Jan. 23.—Drastic precautions to prevent Americans from fighting in Spain were taken today as the liner Paris arrived here from New York.
The United States consul and his staff boarded the liner, inspected passports of all passengers landing from the ship and endorsed the passports of Americans, forbidding them to travel to Spain.
A party of 80 Americans aboard the Paris, believed to be intending to continue to Spain, departed aboard the ship for Havre, where it was understood their passports will be similarly endorsed.

Twelve Feet Of Water In Streets At Hazleton, Ind.

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 23.—Twelve feet of water stood in the streets of Hazleton, Ind., today, according to a manager report received here. More than two-thirds of the residents have evacuated their homes.
The town of Point township was reported entirely under water, with more than 30,000 acres submerged.

VERDICT GIVEN IN ROHRER SUIT

Judgment in full was given Karl T. Rohrer Friday afternoon in Lawrence County court when the jury trying his case against Vincenzo and Florence Isabella handed down a verdict. Rohrer sued for $579 alleged to be due upon a bill for remodeling a place of building on Croton avenue the jury awarded him full amount, plus interest which brings his verdict to $634.

Brenneman Herd Wins High Honor

Shorthorn Exhibit At State Farm Show Sweeps Field Placing Many Champions

OTHER EXHIBITORS ARE GIVEN AWARDS

In addition to his winnings in the Guernsey show at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show, held this week at Harrisburg, Charles L. Brenneman's entries of Shorthorns swept the field, no less than nine championships being won by his herd, word received today from Harrisburg reveals.

Mr. Brenneman, who lives in Plainville township, was awarded the degree of Master Farmer at the farm show Thursday night, and the honor seemed richly deserved because of his performance in the Shorthorn field.

His winnings included junior champion bull, senior champion bull, grand champion bull, junior champion cow, senior champion cow, grand champion cow, first place with herd exhibit, first place for "produce of dam" and first place for "get of sire".

In addition, there were a number of other entries from the county which were awarded prizes.

George Walker, 4-H club member from Scott township, Slippery Rock R. F. D. No. 3, received first award in the 4-H Capon club exhibit, miscellaneous class, with his White Giant breed.

Kenneth Purvis of New Castle R. F. D. No. 2, Union township, took second place with his exhibit of light amber extracted honey.

Mrs. Harry H. Purvis of R. F. D. No. 2, Union township, took third place with her exhibit of canned yellow corn and fifth place with an exhibit of canned yellow string beans.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Christian Church To Have Loyalty Sermon

Rev. Shearer To Answer Question On Sin At The Evening Services On Sunday

On Sunday evening, at 7:45 p. m. Rev. Milton E. Shearer, pastor of the Madison Avenue Christian church will have as his sermon subject "The Most Horrible of Sins," in which he will answer the question "What Sin Causes the Most Sadness to the World?"

Anyone answering this question correctly before the Sunday evening services will receive a beautiful framed picture of Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Much interest has been manifested, and Rev. Shearer states that the answer consists of one word, a word containing more than ten letters, and that it is a sin that most people commit every day, even little children. Your answer may be dropped into a box at the church. All service are open to the public.

This will be the first feature sermon in the "Ten Week Loyalty Campaign."

Presbyterian Group Enjoys Stitch Party

Mrs. Schnebly and Mrs. Dungan Entertain Group Of Willing Workers, Friday Afternoon

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. D. C. Schnebly and Mrs. C. E. Dungan entertained a group of members from the Willing Workers society of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, at a "Stitch" party, it being held in the home of the former on Newell avenue.

The hours of the afternoon were spent most pleasantly at sewing and chat after which the hostesses served tea.

Mrs. J. A. Beard and Mrs. B. H. Galbraith will entertain another group on Friday, January 29.

On Sunday evening Rev. C. H. Hagadorn will preach the first in a series of sermons on the windows of the Mahoning M. E. church.

"The Shepherd," one of the east windows of the church, will be the subject for the first sermon, and special lighting will illuminate the window during the sermon.

Retiring Teacher Honored At Party

Miss Mayme Arthurholt Guest Of Honor At Castleton Dinner-Party

Mahoning school teachers enjoyed one of the loveliest parties of the season, Thursday evening, as they gathered at the Castleton hotel for a dinner given in honor of Miss Mayme Arthurholt, who has retired from her work as a teacher in the Mahoning school after years of faithful service.

Places were laid for twenty-eight at long tables, attractively arranged in a "U" shape, and centered with bowls of lovely flowers. After the serving of a delicious menu, Miss Nannie Mitchell, principal of the Mahoningtown school, presented Miss Arthurholt with a beautiful gift in behalf of those present.

The remaining hours of the evening were spent at cards.

Consuelo Short, Melba Davenport, Frances Hyde, Margaret Bowers and Jean McClure formed the committee who were in charge of all arrangements.

TROOP 19.

The girl scouts of Troop 19, gathered at the Mahoning school, on Friday evening for their regular weekly meeting.

Dodge ball, and various games filled the earlier hours after which the girls went to patrol corners, where some of the girls passed their compass and signalling tests.

After singing a few songs, taps were played and the meeting closed.

Says People Are Going Soft

McIntyre Opines That Present Generation Can't Take It Like Forebears Did

NEW SHOES ARE CAUSE OF PAIN

(By O. O. McIntyre)

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Anyone who can't walk out of a shoe store wearing a new pair of shoes without first breaking them in is a sissy. That's the trouble with this country. We are going soft. Too much mayonnaise and caviar. Not enough black strap sorghum and corn pone.

O. O. McIntyre

It's Old Hickory talking. We need the forbearance of our forebears. Nice tongue rolling phase "forbearance" of our forebears. Am I dynamite at phrasing? Our ancestors yanked on a stiff pair of hand made boots at sun up and tugged them off with a bootjack at sun down without a tweet.

Which reminds me of the story they used to tell of a shiftless character in Gallipoli who piled in bed one night after a coon hunt with shoes, clothes and all. After awhile his wife shook him: "Get up. You got your shoes on." To which he mumbled: "That's all right. They ain't my good ones."

Anyway here I am in new shoes on my way to a party in East 73rd street a mile away. I'll just walk and get the shine off the new kicks. What's a school? I used to walk five miles to school and back in my Little Daisy red top boots.

What a lovely day on the avenue! That zip in the air. Like the beady head of vintage wine. Glittering gee-gaws in the shop windows. Shine of brass and the clear scour of marble. The purr of costly limousines. Glimt of rare furs. Everywhere plush and satined elegance. Anyone who thinks it isn't perfectly dandy to be alive is a sucker. I'd like to have about ten more shots at this business called living. It's the berries.

Well, here are five blocks. A quarter mile and only 15 blocks to go. And the Old Faithfuls have come through without a twinge. I feel as though I might be barefoot. Skippy-like. Not even Little Horatio, that teeny corn, is acting up. When that baby puts on an act it is a hunk of show.

No use in rushing along as though I might be going to a fire. There's plenty of time. I'll gab with the starter in front of Pierre's. He used to be at a hotel where I lived. As a matter of fact, with all the time I have I'll step in the hallway and sit awhile. Nothing beats a soft cushioned divan for comfort. Don't say anything now but I'm beginning to feel a mite burry about the instep. Nothing I can't laugh off. See: Ha, ha and ho, ho. I've laughed off, man and boy, worse things than burning insteps.

So that's that. Am I man or mouse? Well, maybe a little mousey around the edges, but at heart a lion. Anyway a cub lion. Letting a new pair of shoes throw me for a loss after only five blocks. Just another Little Rollo who can't take it. Oh, I am, I am? Well, watch, smarty. Off I go. Of course I could take a taxi from here. But that would be showing the white feather. I'd look sweet gallivanting the avenue stuck up with a feather. Still it might be a start toward feather my nest. I'm beginning to talk daffy: (Voice: Beginning?). No use trying to act nonchalant longer. These shoes are killing me. Head-line: Man in Tight Shoes Runs Amuck on the Avenue! I hope if I go berserk they won't lasso me as they do a wild steer. I bruise easily.

That fool staggering up with a breath you could chin yourself on to inquire: "Anything wrong, mister?" Nobody ever misters me but drunks. He'll be wanting to wait with me next. Stews always do. The back of my hand to that party in East 73d. I'm going to hop—in mean crawl—into a taxi and go on home. The carpet slippers willow rocker and fireside for this baby.

I'll give anyone in this hall a five moan start and out-suffer them ten to one. Wait, listen to this sigh. Is that a huh? Right from the ankles. I've got something there. This taxi gives me a chance to shuck these shoes off awhile. There—look at that smoke! Hot dogs, I'll say. I'll stick my feet out the window to cool. Is this heaven? I've a blister on that left heel that would sweat a whippet to run around. I wish he'd drive by that store so I could hurl these shoes in that clerk's face. Is there any relief after all like slipping off pinchy shoes? I could burst into song. For the love of—suppose I can't get them back on. I'll probably meet everybody I know padding through the hall in my sock feet. Can't you hear them sniff: "Off the reservation again. Him and his water wagon bragging."

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

President's Talk Analyzed

New Dealers Think President Made Grand Inaugural Address

CRITICS SAY HE JUST GENERALIZED

Central Press Washington Bureau 602 Times-Herald Bldg. By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—A hurried check of Washington's political opinion of President Roosevelt's inaugural address elicits just the two conflicting verdicts that might have been expected.

New Dealers think it was grand. Anti-New Dealers complain that the president merely generalized—harped on a broad politico-economic philosophy without furnishing any details as to a method of arriving at his objective.

COULD NOT PARTICULARIZE The criticism of the anti's does not amount to much non-partisanly speaking.

Of course, the president generalized. In a talk which necessarily was limited to thirty minutes he naturally could not even outline a program involving days or weeks to enunciate in particularity. Details will have to await subsequent messages to congress.

The president undoubtedly assumed that his hearers would have enough sense to know that.

MERELY A START The nub of the address undoubtedly was that democracy must adapt itself to "a suddenly changed civilization."

However, can it do so in the short space of another presidential term? It may take generations. But that is not the present presidential funeral.

A preface to a start is all that F. D.'s message professed to amount to.

NEW TYPE PRESIDENTS? What the message does suggest is that a new kind of president is called for.

Past presidents—wit, the exception of Washington and Lincoln—have had no duty except to keep things going. Now seems to be the time when presidential initiative is essential.

Maybe Roosevelt is the requisite raw material.

But will the next one similarly fill the bill? Or a whole succession of next ones?

F. D. R. HAS "IT" Mediocre presidents have done in the past. As implied by this presidential message mediocrity will not do now or for a long time to come.

Whatever charges may be made against Mr. Roosevelt he is not mediocre.

He is no more mediocre than Hitler or Mussolini.

He may not have what we consider their bad qualities, either—but his personality, compared with theirs, may be democratically invaluable.

WHAT WEATHER! Climatically Jan. 20 proved itself to be the worst inauguration day ever invented. I predicted it.

It has turned out to be, however, a corking good date for doctors and undertakers. It has the advantage of an influenza epidemic to begin with.

Yet there is some balm in Gilead. This was only a one-day performance.

The British coronation stretches over an 11-week period.

Slippery Rock Will Lose Prof. Heim

On Faculty 12 Years, He Goes Now To Post At West Chester College

(Special To The News)

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa., Jan. 23.—Thomas J. S. Heim of the college faculty here will leave Slippery Rock next Monday for West Chester, Pa., where he has been invited to join the social science faculty of the teacher's college there. His election to the West Chester position was announced following a meeting of the trustees of that institution on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Heim will assume his new duties at the opening of the semester next Tuesday. His wife and daughters will remain in Slippery Rock for the present.

Mr. Heim has been on the faculty here for 12 years as coach here and for six years as faculty manager for the late Dr. I. C. Williams, on February 1, 1925. During that time 4,195 students have taken social science classes under him, since educational sociology is a required course for all teachers. Varsity debating was started by Mr. Heim in the college here in 1928, and he served as coach here for six years.

He was the founder and organizer of the Theta Chapter of the Pi Gamma Mu, oldest fraternity on the campus, and also organized a chapter of Kappa Gamma, national speech fraternity here. He was also active in other college affairs.

New Flash-Boards At Pymatuning Used

Rise Of Six Inches In 36 Hours Keeps Two And One-Half Billion Gallons In Check

The new flash-boards at the spillway of the Pymatuning dam were called into play Thursday, when the reservoir had reached a level of three inches above normal flow-line.

According to Resident Engineer Joseph Stastny, the run-off in 36 hours between Wednesday at 6:30 and Thursday evening at 6:30 had raised the reservoir 54 of a foot, or more than six inches.

This means the impounding of 2,550,000,000 gallons during that period which has kept from swelling the Shenango river volume to even greater heights. The gates which were opened early in the week, were closed when a new rise in the river indicated flood stage.

Rebuilding Of Part Of Butler Road Desired

BUTLER, Pa., Jan. 23.—A program of work for 1937 was adopted yesterday by the good roads committee of the Butler Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon meeting in the Hotel Nixon.

The primary objective will be reconstruction of Route 422 west of Butler to a point near Mt. Chestnut, known as the New Castle-Butler highway. The project involves a new approach to the city of Butler and elimination of all dangerous curves.

Several suggested plans for the new city approach are under consideration by the state highway department and county commissioners including use of Pillow street, but no decisions have been reached. It is understood the project is to have first consideration this year in Butler county by the state highway authorities.

March criminal court will get away on the first day of the month this year. The first Monday of the month is the first day of the month and the grand jury will meet on that day. The first week of criminal court will start on Monday, August 8.

Both the grand jury and the petit jury for the first week of trial has been selected by the jury commissioners and the sheriff. One case that will not need to go before the grand jury but will be tried, probably in the first week of trial will be that of Rocco Esposito charged with the murder of Francesco Romeo in October 1936. Usually a murder case takes several days so that most of the docket will likely be tried in number two.

If ever we are cast into the county jail we'd like to suggest Friday as the day to go. On that day the sheriff serves ham and bean soup at noon and sliced ham in sandwiches in the evening. Yesterday was the day for ham and beans and at the request of the sheriff's wife, Mrs. Edward D. Prichard we tried a bowl of the soup.

After tasting that delicious soup we wondered if it was so tough as we'd thought it was in jail. It was well seasoned and cooked until the lima beans had almost dissolved. A bowl of it sends you out looking at the world through rose colored glasses.

The recipe is simple. One ham,

NEW CASTLE DEFEATS YOUNGSTOWN EAST 33-19

Covelli And Nocera Star

New Castle Rides Roughshod Over Ohioans At Washington High Floor

PLAY BUTLER NEXT TUESDAY

Showing a fast passing and accurate shooting team, New Castle High "Red Hurricane" rode roughshod over a fast Youngstown East High quintet at the Washington High court, 33 to 19, in a non-league exhibition. Domenick "Jap" Covelli and Vic Nocera were the scoring stars for the locals.

The New Castle boys jumped into the lead at the very outset of the engagement and were never headed, although it was 4-4 at the end of the first period. The end of the first half found the Bridenbaums on front, 13 to 7, having turned on the heat. "Bud" Frazier and Nocera supplied the field goals and Adams and Covelli made a few fouls for the 13 points.

Youngstown was held to three field goals in the first two stanzas. New Castle boys shot four fouls and made three of them for a very fine percentage in the first half. The Easters made one out of three.

New Castle Opens Up
New Castle really "went to town" in the third and fourth periods to pile up a very commanding lead. At the end of the third period it was 17 to 14, with the Ohioans looking a little better, but in the final period the Red and Blacks began popping them in from every angle and it was not long until the game was practically on the well known "ice."

In the final two periods Carey made a pair of double-deckers, so did Covelli. Lone field goals were registered by Kozela, Nocera, Adams and Ryglinski. For the Youngstownians the work of Lawman was the best by a long shot, this youngster making nine of the 19 points. Congelli and White each supplied three points.

In foul tossing the New Castles made 7 out of 12. The Youngstons made 5 out of 10.

Butler Next
It was announced that Butler High would be the Section III opponents for New Castle next Tuesday night at the Washington High court. Butler socked Beaver Falls last night at the Butler floor, 35-29.

Shenango High Tops Princeton

Final Score Of Game Played At Shenango, Friday, Is 28-8

UNION NEXT FOR SHENANGO CAGERS

Unleashing an uncanny offensive attack, Shenango township high school basketball team added the Princeton high cagers to their victory list Friday night, in a game played at Shenango high court. The final count was 28-8.

In the opening period Shenango played air-tight ball, holding their opponents scoreless, while they dropped in six markers. Shenango stepped on the gas in the second, garnering 11 more points, while their foes annexed but two markers. The East New Castle passers accumulated a comfortable lead and coasted throughout the latter part of the third and fourth periods.

Maricone and Ovis were high scorers for the winners, while Hogue and P. Borzackio were the only field goal scorers for the Princetonians. In the preliminary battle the Shenango maidens came through victorious again, defeating the Princeton lassies.

On next Tuesday night on the Shenango hardwood, the Shenango quint meets one of its toughest foes of the season, Union township high. This promises to be one of the hardest fought tussles of the season. In the preliminary, at 7:30 o'clock, the Shenango maidens play Union high girls.

Kern Signs As Coach At Tech

Former Pitt Star And Assistant Coach Will Become Head Coach, Baker Assistant

HOWARD HARPSTER IS FORCED OUT

By DICK SHANER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23.—Carnegie Tech had a new football coaching staff today after administrative authorities confirmed what had been rumored for days.

The institution formally announced the appointment of Bill Kern, former star tackle at the University of Pittsburgh and for years Coach Jock Sutherland's first assistant, as the Plaid's head coach, to succeed a member of its own alumni, Howard Harpster.

Dr. Edward Baker, another one of Sutherland's mainstays, was contracted as Kern's assistant, in charge of the backfield. Two-year association with the school, reported to have been signed by both.

Simultaneously, Dr. Robert E. Doherty, president of the school, announced an entirely new athletic policy, effective the first of July.

Complete New Setup
The new program will reorganize the present set-up and place complete control of all athletic operations in the hands of the president and trustees. A new department of athletics, under the headship of director of athletics, will be created. Associated with the department will be an athletic board on which will be represented three members from each of the following groups: Undergraduates, faculty, trustees and alumni. They will determine the policy and operations of the department, and guide the destinies of the school's gridiron future.

Doherty also said Tech would drop out of "big-time" football. "It is too expensive," he pointed out. In addition, "the high entrance requirements, severe class schedules, and rigid scholastic standards insisted upon by the institution have made the task of maintaining a first-class team next to impossible," he declared.

Keystones And Universals Win

Keys Defeat Beaver Falls 44 To 33, And Universals Topple Shenangos 29 To 19

The Keystone A. C. of South Jefferson street, got revenge on the Beaver Falls Vets of Foreign Wars team for the pasting received at Beaver Falls several weeks ago, by taking a 44 to 33 victory here last night over the visitors. The game was played at the "Y" court.

Coach Andy "Coots" Venditto started his strongest lineup and the boys went to town. At the half it was all tied up at 19-19. In the third and fourth periods the Keys went to work on the Vets. Gennock, Morrison and Reiber led the scoring for the Keys with 36 of the points between them. For the visitors the work of R. McLane and Howarth was the best.

In the second game on the menu, the Universal A. A. team of the House-Indus League gave the Shenango Pottery boys a lesson, 29 to 19, with Cunningham, Todd and Huff the big scorers for the Universals, and with Gibson and Shook also playing a fine defensive game for the winners. For the Shenangos the work of Balla and Bender was the best. At the half the Shenango boys had a lead of 14 to 12.

Pastor Predicts Pastor Will Win By Knockout Blow

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Fearing that, by some miscarriage of justice he might not have been fully understood the first ten times, Bob Pastor, the good, old college-try boy from N. Y. U., boldly asserted this morning that he was going to knock Joe Louis slope-shoulder at Madison Square Garden next Friday night.

"I'm within one punch of a crack at the title," said the young man, "and I'm not going to miss."

In order to straighten out the trial balance, it might as well be made clear that this is the same melleon who was all over the press row not so long ago with a humpy dummy like Eddie Simms and who not only is one of these short-weight guys on the scales, but is a shade on the brief side, even while standing on a slight incline. Still, or two months now, he's talked the best punch on the nose I've ever beheld, with the result that, the first thing you know, somebody's going to believe it and it may even be Pastor.

Even now, he's got quite a few of us a little confused, including Boxing Commissioner Bill Brown, who's practically on the point of being baffled.

"I don't know what it's all about," this gentleman confessed. "But when I went in to see Pastor after the Impellitteri knockout, I saw, like he meant it, 'look here, now. You've got to give me Louis. And he's never even seen Louis fight!'"

There is still opportunity to win new laurels. No candid cartoonist has yet caught a great man in the bathroom.

The simple life of virtue may be dull at times, but look what you save an aspirin.

House-Indus Games Tonight

Three fast games are billed for tonight in the House-Indus league at the "Y."

The first game will start at 8 o'clock and will put the Universal A. A. against the Gerson team. The Pottery boys are due to break into the win column in the league and may give the highly touted Gerson's something to think about this evening.

In the second game the Carnegie-Illinois Steel team will meet the Keystones in the feature spot on the menu. The third game will send the Johnson Bronze into battle with the Castletons.

Bessemer High Trips Ursuline

Bessemer Plays Non-League Game And Upsets Ursuline High Of Youngstown 35 To 21

Bessemer High School basketball team came through with a 35 to 21 victory last night over a fast Ursuline High team of Youngstown at the Bessemer High court. The Bessemers at the half enjoyed a lead of 20 to 6. The Ohioans never threatened the Bessemerians.

The first period ended 12 to 3, and at the half was 20 to 6. The third period it was 28 to 10. Samsa and M. Calderaro were the scoring stars for the Fredericks coached machine with 29 of the points between them, the latter having sixteen points on eight field goals. DeArment supplied the other six points.

For Ursuline the work of Lalley and Cestary was the best. It will be Bessemer at New Wilmington next Tuesday night in a sectional game and East Brook at Bessemer on Friday night.

In the preliminary game the Bessemer Reserves defeated the Ursuline Reserves 25 to 17.

K. P. Team To Play Farrell

The K. P. team of Farrell, Pa., at the Pulaski hall on Sunday afternoon, it was announced today. The K. P. Reserves will play the preliminary game at 2 o'clock meeting the East Side Merchants.

Union Swamps East Brook In League 54 To 18

Union High Quintet Opens Up With Accurate Shooting Attack, Nets 25 Field Goals

Displaying an offensive attack, the likes of which has not been seen at the East Brook floor for many a moon, the Union high school basketball team utterly swamped a fast East Brook high team under an avalanche of 25 field goals and four fouls for a 54 to 18 defeat. The worst that an East Brook high team has ever suffered on the home soil. This was a Section 22 holocaust.

There simply was no stopping the Davey Boyd coached machine last night. Field goal after field goal was popped in from every angle. Just one of those nights the coaches pray for and seldom see. The first period gave a hint of what was to happen, it was 12 to 4 in favor of Union. It was 24 to 7 at the half and the game ceased to be interesting. The end of the third period it was 40 to 10, and the fans in the bleacher seats began to drift out of the park. In the final period Coach Emerick did everything, but play himself and sent in sub after sub, but to no avail, and Union banged in 14 more points, just to make it safe and East Brook made eight points, or more than they had made the first two periods.

Wotowitz High
In the scoring Wotowitz was high man with 12 of the points, on six field goals, with Stevenson and Guinbaugh next in line with 10 points apiece. Davies banged in eight points. Hall and Gardner made the most points for the East Brookians.

In fouls the Unions made 4 out of 14, but nobody seemed to care about this, and East Brook looked better at the foul line making 10 out of 17.

Coach Boyd used a shifted lineup last night and the results, well, they seem to speak for themselves.

January 1, 1901, was the day. The year 1900 merely completes the nineteenth century. The reason for this is that we write the number of the year before we have had the whole year. Consequently, the 19th "hundred" years of the nineteenth century was not completed until December 31, 1900.

Dudley Sets Up Course Record

Pennsylvania Golfer Shoots Sizzling 65, Seven Under Par At Sacramento, Cal.

(International News Service) SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 23.—The icy greens of Sacramento's municipal links were figuratively sizzling today as a result of some hot golf turned in by the country's leading professionals in the opening round of the Sacramento $3,000 open tournament.

Ed. Dudley of Philadelphia was the hottest of all. He shattered the course record when he posted a 65, 7 strokes under par. His 35 on the first 9 was one under. The second 9 was a 6 under. He had 7 birdies.

Dudley's 65 lowered by two strokes the record established two years ago by Harold "Jug" McSpaden and Walter Hagen during the initial Sacramento open, which McSpaden won.

Sports Review Just At Glance

(International News Service) Bob Pastor predicted knockout victory over Joe Louis in 10-round New York bout January 29.

Fred Perry defeated Ellsworth Vines at Philadelphia, 6-3, 9-7, 1-6, 6-3, to lead in tour, five matches to three.

Miklas Szabo, Hungarian star long-distance runner, arrived here to compete in four track meets, beginning February 6, in Millrose A. A. games at New York.

Leon Pettigrew, of Pendleton, Ind., defeated Dr. L. J. Barnett, 10 and 9, to win annual Miami-Biltmore Invitation Amateur Golf Tournament.

Less emphasis on football seen at Carnegie Tech with naming of William A. Kern as new head coach.

Ed Dudley, of Philadelphia, shot 65 to lead in first round of $3,000 Sacramento Open Golf Tournament.

New York Giants announced receipt of signed contracts from Pitcher Dick Cofman and Outfielder Leslie Horn.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

William F. Kern was named full-time coach at Carnegie Tech yesterday, succeeding Howard Harpster, All-America quarterback at the Plaid institution. Kern has been first assistant to Coach Jock Sutherland at Pitt. It was with a tinge of regret Harpster received the news. Although he had anticipated he would be replaced, he said that the athletic council of Carnegie Tech had not seen fit to communicate with him and said "therefore I have no statement to make." Another change in western Pennsylvania football situation occurred at Beaver Falls, Dwight Bede having withdrawn as coach of football at Geneva college where he has held that post three years. Previously he had mentored at Westminster. His successor has not yet been named. Bede intends to adopt a business career.

Coach Johnny Lawther and his Penn State basketball team will oppose Pitt at Pittsburgh tonight. It will be a regular scheduled Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball conference contest. Lawther will start Miehoff and Prosa at forward, Stopper at center and Corbin and Reichenbach at guard. Jesko and Seleznik will play forward. Garcia, center and Johnson and Radavansky guard for the Panthers. Lawther had unusual success at Westminster, after which he cast his lot with the Nittany Lions. Penn State is roaring again and indications are they will give Pitt quite a tussle tonight. Smarting under the defeat given them by Carnegie Tech, Duquesne will try to wallop Geneva college at Beaver Falls and Carnegie Tech will play Temple at Philadelphia.

Ed Dudley, Philadelphia professional, Friday at Sacramento, tied together seven birdies and 11 par holes for a course record-breaking 65 to take the lead in the $3,000 open golf tournament. He was one under par with a 35 on the outgoing nine and came home in 30, six under perfect figures. The former record of 67 for the municipal course was held jointly by Harold McSpaden, Winchester, Mass., and Walter Hagen, Detroit.

Lorain will invade the city tonight to oppose the New Castle Saxons in a Saxon basketball game. Sammy Byrd, ex-Yankee and also a former Red, had a five-stroke lead at the halfway mark in the baseball players golf meet at Sarasota. Indiana Teachers beat Clarion Teachers on the floor at Indiana, 43 to 33, last night. President C. C. Williams, Lehigh U., has suggested that large colleges and universities solve the problem of "over emphasis of spectacular athletics" by sponsoring professional teams in addition to their student teams.

AROUND CITY HALL

During the past several days there has existed a possibility of Neshannock creek water overflowing the east bank. It has been recalled that several years ago councilmen and property-owners discussed the advisability of erecting a stone wall similar to that on the east bank, on the west bank. However, no amicable arrangement between the two bodies was reached, hence no stone wall.

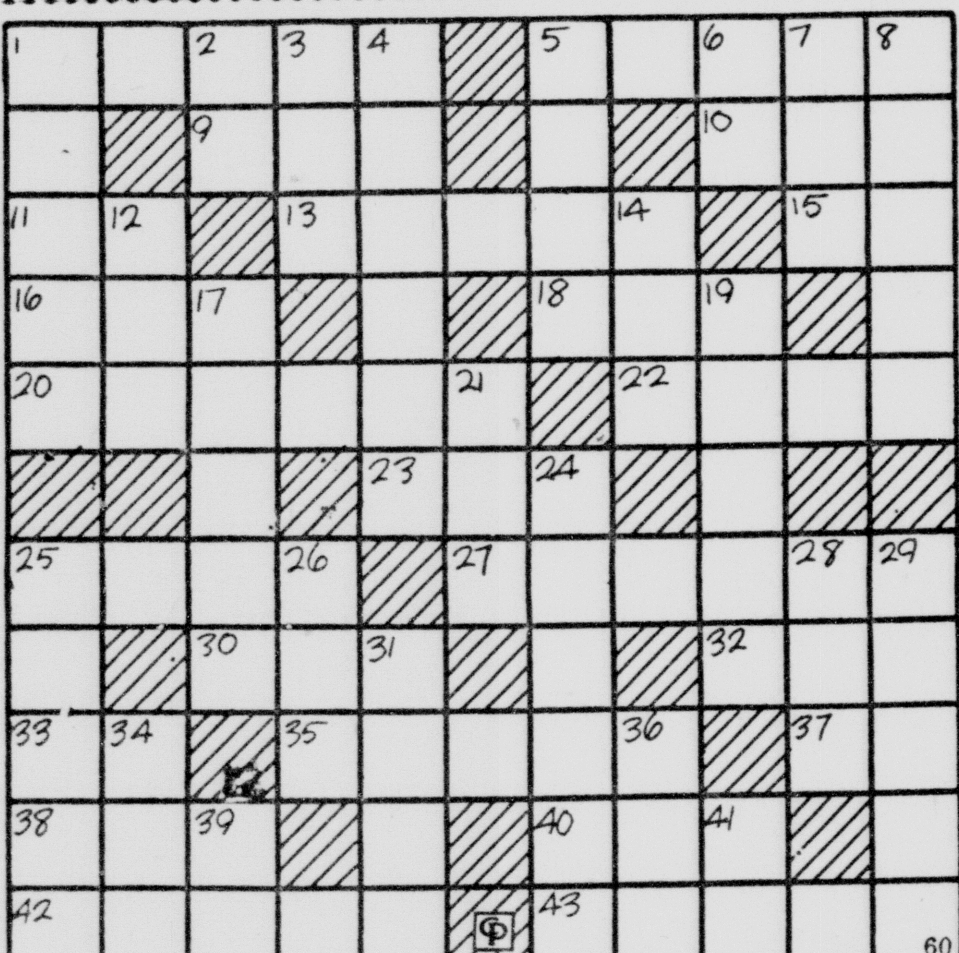

D. J. Thomas city patrolman, who some weeks ago underwent a severe operation at the J. Edgar Memorial hospital, has progressed so rapidly from the operation he is now able to take walks. He will not return to his police duties for some time.

More than 100 certificates of health have been filed by persons handling food with the city health department. They were examined by their personal physicians. The law calls for examinations as to their physical condition every six months.

All cars stolen recently have been recovered according to police authorities. Some of the motor vehicles were found abandoned as disheveled as Columbus, O. Most of the recovered machines were in good condition but out of gasoline.

The Whirling Dervishes deliberately work up a hysterical frenzy. If they were playing jazz, the result would be swing music.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEKALL

Well, it's over . . . What's over? . . . Why, the show, "Headlines" and it was a success let me tell you . . . even if I was in it. Don't you agree with me now that it was one of the best shows New Castle has ever had the pleasure to give and see.

Remember one day this last week this column said that today there would be two different types of people in New Castle . . . do you remember what they were? Are you type one or type two? I hope you are type two because you have gotten some enjoyment out of this week.

There's a little boy whom I know and he's very deep in this game, called love . . . he spends night after night, which is alright, at his lady friend's home . . . today he is down with a cold . . . his boss is wondering where he is . . . if he could only ask me I could tell him what is wrong . . . Lack of sleep leaves you in a run down condition . . . sleep is as important as food . . . I have proof.

If this snow keeps up and the mercury keeps down . . . maybe the flood will leave us and we hope never to wash our door again . . . This snow is something like the weather we should be having . . . skiing and the like . . . oh boy, o'boy, o'boy . . . let me out in the wide open spaces.

Some folks carry out an old tradition and on Sunday evening a buffet supper is in vogue . . . if you're not in the habit of doing this try it one Sunday and have your friends in and then you can all go to church afterwards . . . Just a suggestion for that supper . . . Put cooked chicken and almonds through food chopper. Mix with mayonnaise, place between slices of white bread . . . it tastes good after the crowd has been out ice skating or skiing . . . this is the kind of weather for buffet suppers.

Don't forget that the classified page is your page and it works for you as you see fit.

Much Damage By High Water

Connoquessing Creek Reaches High Stage During Past Few Days

ZELIENOPLE, Jan. 23.—The high water along the Connoquessing creek west of Zelenople did considerable damage at the Old Furnace coal mine, a short distance from here. The mine is owned by John Irwin of Pittsburgh, and is completely under water, with much damage done to the machinery, and the mine will not be able to operate for at least a month, perhaps longer. It is a strip mine.

At the L. L. Wilson farm west of town in Zelenople borough, the water was also high, over the banks for some distance, the bottom being filled with water.

At Fomell the road along the creek near the West farms was covered with water for several miles. Some families were unable to get away from their homes the roads being covered and not safe.

At Harmony Junction the road was covered and the bottom land covered for some distance. A group of cottages along the creek at Harmony Junction had water in them. In many cases the cottages are owned by Pittsburgh people. They are summer cottages, not inhabited now. Considerable damage will be done there also. At the Senn property the K. of P. Home, the water was up to the barn, the entire bottom being covered.

Ambridge Trims Ellwood Hi 48-20

Sweesy And Yerga Lead Fast Attack After First Quarter At Ambridge Friday

RESERVES LOSE HARD FOUGHT GAME

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 23.—After a slow start Ambridge high basketball team won a hard fought game at Ellwood City 48-20.

The Wolverines started out fine but could not keep up the pace. The score was 6-5 in favor of Ambridge at the end of the first quarter. But from then on it was a rout. The home team scored 19 points in the second quarter to Ellwood's two, making the score 25-7 for Ambridge at the half. It was 40-14 in the third quarter and 48-20 final.

Sweesy and Yerga proved to be the big thorns in the side for Ellwood. These two sharpshooters counted for 16 and 11 points respectively. Jones was outstanding for Ellwood with nine points. This completed the first round schedule for Ellwood without a victory. The locals suffered six straight league losses. Next Tuesday the locals are scheduled to play the Duquesne Freshmen on the local floor.

The Ellwood Reserves lost a hard fought game to the Ambridge Reserves in the preliminary game by a score of 27-18. The home team took an early lead and never relinquished it. The score was 9-3 in the first period, 16-11 in the second, 23-14 in the third and 27-18 final. Stewart held the limelight for the winners while Carlin and Gentile were best for the losers.

INJURED BY FALL Mrs. Joseph White met with an accident Thursday night, when she fell into the cellar.

Mr. White had gone to the basement to fix the fire and a trap or door is used. Mrs. White went to the kitchen and stepped down, dislocating and cracking her right shoulder bone, received bruises and a general shaking up. She was taken to Ellwood City hospital where an x-ray was taken and medical aid rendered.

She is at her home on North Main street.

WAMPUM PERSONALS C. S. Ferguson is a little improved. Thomas McGrath confined to his home for several months, is reported improving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McChesney were New Castle shoppers yesterday. Mrs. Guy Davis and daughter have returned home from the New Castle hospital.

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 23.—G. A. R. Ladies held their regular meeting last night in the V. F. W. Hall on Fourth street with about 20 present.

There was an installation of officers with Mrs. Luella Welling succeeding Mrs. Minnie Roeloff as president of the lodge. A social time with bingo was then enjoyed. Lunch was served at a later hour by a committee composed of Catherine McKim, Carrie Aiken, and Albert Thompson. The lodge will meet again on the fourth Friday in February.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY MEETS The ladies of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Chewtown Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Eliza Conner on Tuesday, January 19. At noon a soup dinner was served by the committee. After the dinner a business meeting was conducted. The day was spent in quilting. There were two special guests, Mrs. J. L. ## Would Abolish 765 Fourth Class School Districts

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 23.—Abolition of 765 fourth class school districts, scattered "no-man's-lands" in the commonwealth's educational system, by 1941, is sought by an administration-sponsored measure before the 132nd General Assembly today.

Introduced by Sen. Frank Ruth, Berks Democrat, the proposal provides for the merger by July 1, 1938, of all districts where no teacher had been employed for the current school year, and by 1941 the consolidation of all districts where five or less teachers have been employed. Of the score of education bills introduced in both chambers, the Ruth proposal was the only one of major importance bearing the "must" stamp.

Although the school districts would be merged, members of the boards of education would not be ripped out of office, according to the bill. Rather, the boards, too, would merge until the expiration of the members' terms, after which time the groups would be selected at the annual convention of school directors.

Pacific Mountain Trail Extended

Trail Along Mountain Top
From Canada To Mexico
Nears Completion

(International News Service)
SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 23.—A mountain crest trail, along the summit of the Cascades and Sierra Nevada, extending from Canada to Mexico, came nearer completion last year with building of 40 miles in Washington, bringing the total in this state to 169.

The Oregon sector and part of the California route along the summit of the Sierra Nevada range already have been completed. In Washington 362 miles remain to be built.

The trail threads through a mountain paradise unsurpassed in scenic grandeur and not invaded by motorists, except where east-west highways cross mountain passes.

The Washington section of the trail, which vacationists can follow on foot or horseback, passes through five national forests, and along the summit of the glacier-marked range, winding around saw-tooth formations.

In the three states there are literally hundreds of lakes within easy reach, many abounding in trout. Deer, bear and mountain goats are among the game frequently encountered.

The trail is three feet wide. During the summer season the U. S. forest service uses completed sections in controlling and preventing fires.

No Copyright On Duce's Photo

(International News Service)
ROME, Jan. 23.—Photographs of Mussolini's iron-jawed, strong-willed face cannot be copyrighted. Recently a photographer sued a well-known Italian magazine for having reproduced a photo of Il Duce without previous authorization.

The court not only decided that there was no basis for trial but also lamented the photographer's lack of patriotism.

It is believed in legal circles that this does not apply to books or biographies on Il Duce.

State Farm Show Is Big Success

Already Plans Are Being Made For Bigger And Better Show For 1938

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 23.—The state farm show, hailed a success by the some 400,000 persons who attended it this week, was a matter of history today, but already there was talk of a "bigger and better" exhibition for next year.

Hardly had the last farmer left the squat, sprawling farm show building when discussion became wide-spread on the possibility of bringing the annual world poultry congress to Harrisburg in 1939. Some 100,000 persons witnessed last year's "congress" in Leipzig, Germany.

Although the weather man was anything but congenial throughout the week, the attendance mark was 100,000 higher than the 1934 record when 287,000 persons passed through the turnstiles.

Pope's Condition Little Changed

By FRANK GERVASTI
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

VATICAN CITY, Jan. 23.—Continued use of opiates—reluctantly administered by Dr. Amintore Milani—today gave Pope Pius brief respite from the deadly pain that has tortured him for days.

Another night of horror for the afflicted pope ended in a sleep of utter exhaustion at 6 o'clock this morning.

The pope slept for three hours, with the indefatigable Dr. Milani, practically on 24 hours' duty, at his side every moment.

The pope's condition, in spite of the strain of the unwillingly administered narcotics, remained unchanged today, it was stated at the Vatican.

Another night of horror for the afflicted pope ended in a sleep of utter exhaustion at 6 o'clock this morning.

Sentence Miner To Die In Chair

(International News Service)

INDIANA, Pa., Jan. 23.—Andrew Yacos, 52, a miner, of White Station, today became the first man in more than a decade to be sentenced to the electric chair from Indiana county.

A jury, after an hour and a half deliberation, found him guilty and made no recommendation of mercy. Yacos was accused of fatally stabbing Andrew Spelock, 50, and his wife, Anna, 48, with whom he boarded, in a drunken rage, but he was tried and found guilty only on the woman's death.

Yacos on the stand asserted his mind was a blank and that he remembered nothing until he awoke in jail and found his clothes were stained with blood. The commonwealth charged he killed the couple when they refused him a drink.

Ask For Relief At Cincinnati

Appeals Are Made In Behalf Of Flood Sufferers In Ohio Area

(International News Service)

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 23.—Franklin appeals were being radioed to all points in central and northern Ohio today for food, clothing and money to aid in relief of 40,000 greater Cincinnati flood sufferers, sheltered from freezing temperature of 18 degrees and a biting wind, in schools, churches, public buildings and private homes.

The swollen Ohio river was reported to be practically stationary at 72.7 feet at 7 a. m. This was 20.7 feet above flood stage. National guard observers said they learned a crest of 73 feet would be reached today.

There was little chance of the river freezing as it raced through lower sections of the city because of the swiftness of the current.

Several cases of exposure were reported, but rumors that a number had drowned in the flood waters were unverified.

About 20,000 Homeless.

City officials estimated the number of homeless in the city limits at 20,000. They said 18,000 had fled their inundated homes in northern Kentucky towns and 2,000 were forced to evacuate in suburbs of this city.

Covington officials reported all homeless cared for and Newport volunteers were rapidly building boats to take refugees from flooded homes.

Power and gas had not been shut off although lower sections of the city's two powerhouses were under water.

Refugees fleeing flooded Newport, Ky., crossed the Louisville & Nashville interurban bridge and were ferried across the inundated area on the Ohio side of the river to dry land.

It was estimated that 500 Newport families were driven from the city and 500 families were reported stranded in other areas of Campbell county.

Louisville & Nashville railroad tracks were completely inundated at Demosville, Ky., and all other railroad lines entering here were two to six hours late.

The only vehicular link connecting this city and Covington, Ky., was the suspension bridge.

Meteorologist W. C. Devereaux said that loss by flood damage had mounted to $5,000,000.

New Richmond inhabitants were reported out of danger.

Cleveland sent two motorboats and 500 oil coves to the Red Cross here to complete safe evacuation of all families.

Larger Crowd Sees "Headlines"

Kiwanians Net Good Sum For Work For Underprivileged Children

With a much larger crowd and a performance smoother than on Thursday night, the Kiwanis "Headlines" closed Friday night in the Cathedral auditorium. For the closing performance there must have been close to 2,000 people in the house, and apparently not a one but enjoyed the performance.

As on the previous night the performers were given a hand, and such individual stars as Emil Lenko, Jack Bruce, Mike Turco, Delbert Fletcher, Nell Brady, Billie Glenn, and others held up the show with the length of their ovations.

Wretched weather held the crowd down, no doubt, but at that the crowd was satisfactory. No check on the receipts were available today but it is thought that the Kiwanis Club will have made a handsome sum of money for its underprivileged children work.

HILLSVILLE

BIRTHDAY PARTY
A number of young folks gathered in the home of Miss Ruby Yarnovich of Carbon to celebrate her birthday. Games and music were the diversion of the evening. The honor guest received a number of beautiful presents. The pleasant evening was brought to a close by the serving of delicious refreshments by Miss Anna Yarnovich.

HILLSVILLE NOTES

Mrs. Charles Hawes and daughter Helen spent Monday in New Castle.

Mr. and Mrs. William Baker of Beaver Falls, spent Sunday visiting with relatives here.

F. O. Earnshaw and Joseph Jackson are attending the Limestone convention at Cincinnati.

Mrs. Bertha Akers of Carbon, has returned to her home here after an extended visit with her mother at York, Pa.

Friends here will be sorry to hear of the illness of Francis Grist, a former local man at his home in Lowellville.

Rev. Ingersoll, pastor of Hillsville Methodist church is able to resume his duties here after being ill at his home in Edenburg.

Master Virgil Penwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Penwell who is a patient in the Jameson Memorial hospital shows signs of improvement.

Card Of Thanks
I wish to thank my friends, neighbors and relatives for kindness and sympathy extended me during my recent bereavement.

Also for floral tributes and cars donated.

HISTORIC BROWNVILLE

Do you know that Brownville in Fayette County has a most interesting historic background?

The town was founded in 1785 by Thomas and Basil Brown. Next to Pittsburgh, it was the oldest town west of the Alleghenies in southwestern Pennsylvania. One mile north of the town was the Hangard, an English storehouse and fort, captured by De Villier on his way to attack Washington at Fort Mifflin. Fort Burd was built in 1759, and Redstone Old Fort was also located here. Places of interest are Bowman's Castle and St. Peters Roman Catholic Church, a beautiful Gothic edifice which was recently restored. The parents of James G. Blaine are buried in St. Peters Cemetery.

Dear Brother Lion:

Our next meeting will be for business only. We are glad to receive as new members during the past month Charles T. Hudson, J. Walker Balentine, Frank Weddell and George F. Winter, Jr. These gentlemen will be installed Tuesday.
